The County Commissioners.

Yesterday the county commissioners' committee on court house and jail met and audited bills. Several hose plugs were ordered to be put in good repair, that the new sod may be sprinkled. The full board will meet to-day in the monthly auditing session.

An Idiosyncrasy of the Strawberry.

The culture of strawberries has been discontinued on Brown's Island, says the Steubenauille Herald, the floods of late years having so changed the nature of the soil that it is impossible to make the crop a success. The peculiar sediment that has been deposited lately greatly enriched the soil and enhanced the growth and excellence of other fruits and vegetables, but proved disastrous to the strawberry.

Transfers Recorded.

Clerk Hook yesterday admitted to record transfers of real estate as follows:
May 1 by the county commissioners to William Murray, for $7,025, the old jail property.
May 25 by Schmidt, Happy and Blecherson and their wives to Margaret A. Jaquay, for $600, lots 89 and 90 in the Belvedere addition.
May 26 by the same parties of the first part to Mary Jane Jaquay, for $600, lots 87 and 88, Belvedere.
April 1 by C. F. Laue and wife to Mary E. Laue, Catharine D. Laue, Henry J. Laue and Louisa H. Imhoff, for $850, their interest in property on the west side of North Broadway, Island.
April 1 by Johanna E. Rathhoff and Henry, her husband, to Mary E. Laue and others, for $750, their interest in the same lot.

They Will Import Servant Girls.

W. Allen Shepard, of Pittsburgh, who has established an employment office at 1112 Main street, was in the city yesterday. The central office is located in Pittsburgh, and they have established branch offices in Buffalo, Erie, Wheeling, Steubenville and Youngstown. Their business is to furnish all kinds of male and female help. Mr. Shepard said to an INTELLIGENCER reporter yesterday that domestic help seems to be in the greatest demand in Wheeling, but, he added, "I am here to-day arranging to bring fifteen or twenty Swedish and German girls to Wheeling, which will probably fill the immediate demand, and in the future we will be prepared to bring them in by the car load if required. So, you see, we will be able to furnish all applicants with first class servants."

IN THE THREE COURTS.

The Various Business Transacted at Yesterday's Sessions.

In Judge Campbell's side of the circuit court yesterday, in the case of Frank J. Kuglen vs. Edward Hornbrook, judgment was rendered for G. B. Caldwell; cases as to garnishees dismissed, garnishees to recover costs from Kuglen.

John C. F. Freese vs. George W. Freese et al., order of sale entered.

D. W. Harrison vs. the Fraternity of Financial Co-operation, objection of plaintiff to plea in abatement overruled, and bond of $150 required of plaintiff.

A. J. Halstead et al. vs. Jennie Halstead et al.; plaintiff filed an amended bill and the cause was remanded to rules.

In Judge Paul's court, in the case of Lewis Steenrod, administrator, vs. Charles Fisher, judgment was revived against Steenrod, administrator of James Kine; administrator's costs to be recovered from Charles Fisher.

In the criminal court, Judge Jordan on the bench, in the case of Edward Dundon, indicted for a misdemeanor, the former forfeiture was set aside; plea of guilty, fined $25 and costs.

John Bethel, prosecuting witness against Sutton and Connors, being called, came not, and his bond was declared forfeited. Connors' father, charged with bribery, was ordered to be arraigned before a justice and dealt with according to law.

SIXTEEN LARGE CASES.

A Good Big Docket in the Police Court Yesterday Morning.

There were sixteen assorted cases in the mayor's court, yesterday. Nick Asulta was up for loitering in Fannie Preston's house, on Nineteenth street, and for carrying a concealed pistol. He paid $5 and costs on each case. Jessie Hercules and Mame Dolan were charged with being on the streets at night for bad purposes, and paid the same amount each. Peter Tribu, who made one team haul two over-loaded night soil wagons, was fined $1 and costs, but the fine was suspended. John Barkley, Jim Martin and Albert Conrad were accused of fighting on the Island Sunday; Martin and Conrad got $5 and costs each, and Barkley was dismissed. Manuel Boyd and Archie Norman, disorderly, got $1 and costs each, and Mrs. Boyd was dismissed. George and Ed McDonald and Willie Fresh, playing cards in public, were fined $1 and costs each, but the fines were suspended if they did not offend again. James Johnson and B. Halpin, plain drunks, got $5 and costs and $1 and costs, respectively. Johnson went to the bill for thirty days in default.

It Was Suicide.

It is pretty well settled that R. R. Balliet, the man killed by the Cleveland & Pittsburgh engine at Bellaire Saturday evening, had made up his mind to die that way. He had been a brakeman a year ago in the Cleveland, Lorain & Wheeling yards at Bridgeport, but leaving there had drifted out to Indiana, where, it seems, he fell in love with a girl whose name is not known. A letter found in his pocket dated at Aurora, Ind., May 21, told him that on account of the opposition of her parents she would not see him any more, and to consider their engagement broken. This the man received on Friday, and from his actions in walking down the railroad track when he had money to pay his fare with, and in his watching the train approach makes it look like a case of suicide. A man at work in a garden near where he was says the fellow saw the engine when it was within a few feet of him and could have gotten out of the way, but made no move to do so.

MEMORIAL DAY—THE HUB CLOTHIERS.

MEMORIAL DAY.

"The muffled drum's sad roll has beat
The soldier's last tattoo,
No more in life's parade shall meet
That brave and fallen few.

"Nor shall their glory be forgot
While Fame her record keeps,
Or Honor points the hallowed spot
Where Valor proudly sleeps."

A GAIN in a few days the sweetly solemn function of Memorial Day will be at hand, again comes the time when we are to forget for awhile the fact of selfish gain getting and close for a few hours in loving remembrance of "those who gave their lives to gain for us all that we now enjoy." Did you ever think of that, young man or young woman? Memorial Day is more than a National day. It is

A SABBATH FOR HUMANITY.

It is a testimony to the world of the manhood, the valor, the self-sacrifice of a free people, who fought, not for themselves alone, but for the enfranchisement of millions of bondsmen, and that a government of the people, for the people and by the people might live. On that day when loving hands decorate the graves of the fallen hosts, see to it that the little mounds marked "Unknown" are especially remembered. The tragedies of war and the glories of peace, the story has never been told and never will be.

Decoration Day suggests the Blue G. A. R. Clothing. We have them in large assortment, Plain Sack, Single-Breasted Straight Cut Sack, Double-Breasted Sack and Four-Button Frock.

Our great Suit Sale, advertised in last Sunday's News and Daily INTELLIGENCER, was a pleasant surprise to all who called during the week. We'll surprise hundreds more during this week. Come by all means and see what we are doing. Boys' and Children's Clothing at prices that'll catch 'em all. Always ready to show you bargains at
